

Requirements Document

- Should include precinct data from Minnesota
- Represent the data in visual form : Interactive map or chart/graph
- Every county from Minnesota included in the result
- Analyze the precinct results and find the biggest variations in the data
- Compare the actual data with a random generated map with equal population
- Accurately represent the data with graphs and charts
- Every precinct included in results
- Able to calculate the votes from the election district and how it affects in the election
- Generate random maps with roughly equal population in districts and then comparing that to the current map.